Distributor shall cause all members of Distributor’s Group to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

3. Intellectual Property Rights

3.1. Distributor’s Group acknowledges and agrees that CME and CME’s licensors hold all right, title and interest in and to Information and the Intellectual Property Rights in Information and in the format in which CME transmits Information. Distributor’s Group agrees that the Intellectual Property Rights of CME and its licensors are not transferred, assigned or affected in any way as a result of this Agreement.

3.2. Distributor’s Group will, at CME’s request and expense take all reasonable steps, such as execution of written documents or co-operation in litigation both during and after the term of this Agreement, as are necessary for the protection and enforcement of the Intellectual Property Rights of CME and the licensors.

3.3. Subject to Clause 3.1 above, all Intellectual Property Rights of any member of Distributor’s Group subsisting in or relating to:

(a) a Service that may include Information (as processed by any member of Distributor's Group in accordance with this Agreement); and

(b) any collection, compilation or other original work in which Information is included in a manner permitted by this Agreement, which is created by or on behalf of any member of Distributor's Group, will remain vested exclusively in the relevant member of Distributor's Group, as applicable.

4. Distributor's Receipt of Information

4.1. Schedule 2 identifies whether Distributor is a Vendor or a Subvendor. If Distributor is a Vendor, Distributor is licensed to receive Information directly from CME. If Distributor is a Subvendor, Distributor is licensed to receive Information from the Vendor(s) and Subvendor(s) specified in Schedule 2 of this Agreement. Distributor must obtain prior permission from CME to receive Information from any other source for the purpose of distribution in accordance with this Agreement.

4.2. Each member of Distributor's Group shall be responsible at its own expense for the installation, operation and maintenance of any telecommunication lines, equipment and software (in accordance with specifications provided by CME from time to time) necessary to enable it to receive and use Information (collectively, "Equipment").

4.3 If Distributor is a Vendor, the following additional terms apply:

(a) Equipment shall be procured and installed at the premises specified on Schedule 2 by CME or a subcontractor appointed by CME, and shall be maintained only by CME or such subcontractor. Distributor shall complete and execute the access request form, attached hereto as Schedule 6, and any other reasonable documentation CME requests with respect to the acquisition and use of Equipment. Distributor shall allow CME or its appointed subcontractor access to Equipment on reasonable notice for inspection, maintenance, repair, replacement, or removal. The frequency of maintenance services to be provided with respect to any such Equipment shall be determined by CME. CME may at any time on reasonable notice change Equipment for similar equipment as long as there is no materially adverse impact to Distributor. Distributor shall not remove Equipment from the premises specified on Schedule 2 or, after its installation, move Equipment within such premises, without CME's prior written consent;

(b) Distributor shall be financially responsible for any damage to Equipment incurred while Equipment is on Distributor's premises, unless such damage is caused by some defect in Equipment. Distributor agrees to insure Equipment against theft, fire, water and other damage and agrees to treat Equipment at all times with the care customarily accorded computer equipment in a business environment;

(c) Upon payment by Distributor to CME of all fees and expenses due with respect to Equipment, CME will transfer title and ownership of Equipment to Distributor. Distributor agrees that it bears all risk of loss, damage, destruction or theft of Equipment from any cause whatsoever starting on the date Equipment arrives on Distributor's premises, regardless of whether or not Distributor has paid all fees and expenses due with respect to Equipment;

(d) Distributor's Group agrees that CME shall not be responsible for any impact on the ability of Distributor's Group to receive Information resulting from any alteration, addition, or connection to Equipment made without CME's prior written consent.

4.4. CME or its licensors may add or delete Information depending on operational requirements. CME will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide advance notice of changes to Information. CME will use commercially reasonable efforts to give Distributor ninety (90) days' prior written notice before making any material changes in the speed, signal characteristics or operational requirements described in technical notices issued by CME, unless a malfunction, emergency or regulatory requirement precludes such notice. Distributor shall bear the responsibility and expense of making any resultant changes to the Service.

4.5. If Distributor has reason to believe any addition or deletion of Information or change in the relevant technical specifications significantly alters the nature of Information or materially reduces its quality, Distributor may terminate this Agreement without liability upon written notice. Written notice of any such termination by Distributor must be provided to CME within thirty (30) Days of the date of the alteration or deletion.

4.6. Each party shall comply with all applicable regulations, conditions or restrictions laid down from time to time by any statute, court order, telecommunications provider and/or regulatory authority in connection with access to, use, storage and transmission of Information.

5. Distributor's Use of Information

5.1. For purposes of this Clause 5, the expression "to use and distribute" means to use, store, process and reformat Information and to distribute Information in the Service(s) to Subscribers or Subvendors.

5.2. Distributor Group's use and distribution of Information shall comply with the limitations described in Schedule 4 of this Agreement.

5.3. Distributor's Group may process Information with or without other data for the purpose of creating and distributing new original works, provided that

(a) any works so created that display, represent or recreate any item of Information will be regarded as Services incorporating Information for the purposes of this Agreement and will be subject to applicable fees, and

(b) Distributor's Group must obtain prior written permission from CME before using any element of Information to create or recalculate indices or any original work that does not include, display or recreate Information.

CME may at its sole discretion deny permission or apply License Fees (as defined in the Fee Schedule) for the right to create or recalculate indices or any other work from Information, for use in services that are not subject to Real Time Information Fees (as defined in the Fee Schedule).

5.4. Distributor shall ensure that all use of Real Time Information by members of Distributor's Group, except for Media Redistribution as specified in Clause 5.10 below, is identified to CME and measured by Distributor using an approved Unit of Count and is subject to effective Internal Controls.

5.5. Distributor shall ensure that members of Distributor's Group do not misrepresent Information or display or distribute Information in any way that may create a false or misleading impression as to the origin or value of any item of Information. In particular and with respect to any and all use of Information by Distributor's Group as authorized hereunder, Distributor's Group shall:

(a) credit CME and its licensors as the source(s) of Information, using the following legend or such other legend as CME may provide: "The market data is the property of Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. and its licensors. All rights reserved."

(b) not deface or remove any trademarks or other proprietary notices transmitted with Information,

(c) ensure that Delayed Information is clearly labeled as such and the period of delay noted in all Services incorporating Delayed Information,

(d) comply with such other reasonable Information display requirements as CME may issue to all Distributors.

5.6. Distributor's Group shall not use Information for any illegal purpose.

5.7. No member of Distributor's Group may distribute Information to any party other than a Subscriber or Subvendor without prior consent of CME. Any such distribution permitted by CME must comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Distributor shall promptly notify CME in writing of any third party that desires to become a Subvendor of any member of Distributor's Group. Prior to release of Information to a Subvendor, members of Distributor's Group are required to obtain written confirmation from CME that the Information recipient has executed the appropriate agreement with CME. If a member of Distributor's Group releases Information to a Subvendor prior to obtaining such written confirmation, Distributor will be responsible for paying CME all fees that otherwise would have been remitted by the Subvendor directly to CME. Distributor shall notify CME in writing in advance of any Subvendor of any member of Distributor's Group that ceases to serve as a Subvendor for such member of Distributor's Group.

5.8. Distributor shall use all reasonable efforts to co-operate with and assist CME in preventing, or identifying and ending, any unauthorized receipt, display, redistribution or use of Information by any person from Distributor's Group. Distributor shall promptly notify CME of any such unauthorized receipt, display or redistribution of Information known to Distributor.

5.9. Distributor's Group may distribute Delayed or End of Day Information without requiring Subscriber to execute a Subscriber Agreement. The redistributed Delayed Information must be accompanied by a notice or display requiring all recipients to recognize and agree that their use of Delayed Information is subject to the following:

(a) the Delayed Information is for the recipient's own personal use and may not be redistributed without permission of CME, which may depend on execution of an agreement and payment of the applicable fee;

(b) CME and its licensors reserve all Intellectual Property Rights to Information;

(c) CME disclaims all liability for Information and use thereof, and any and all losses, damages or claims arising from use of Information;

(d) CME may suspend or terminate receipt or display of Information by any party if CME has reason to believe Information is being misused or misrepresented.

5.10 Distributor's Group may include Real Time Information in a Media Publication subject to prior approval of CME, payment of the applicable Media Redistribution License Fee, and the conditions for Media Redistribution set out in the Market Data Policies. CME reserves all rights to determine whether any proposed distribution of Information by Distributor's Group constitutes a Media Publication.

5.11 Distributor's Group may include limited extracts of Delayed Information on an occasional basis in written or oral communications with third parties, including bona fide news reports, provided that these communications do not involve the regular or systematic distribution, display or processing of Information. CME reserves all rights to determine whether communications including Information qualify as limited extracts for the purpose of this Agreement. CME reserves the right to regard as unauthorized redistribution of Information any communication of Information that in CME's view does not meet the conditions of this Clause 5.11.

5.12 Upon CME's request, Distributor will provide CME with a set of product brochures related to any Services incorporating Information and/or access to any such Service free of charge for a maximum of five authorized users.

5.13 Any use or distribution of Information by members of Distributor's Group not specified in this Clause 5 is not authorized under this Agreement and requires a separate written agreement of CME.

5.14. Distributor will cease all distribution of Information by members of Distributor's Group to any Subscriber, Subvendor or member of Distributor's Group immediately upon receipt of written direction of CME or on the date specified by a written direction of CME. This obligation survives termination of this Agreement.

6. Subscriber's Use of Information

6.1. Distributor's Group shall ensure, and Subscriber Agreements shall provide, that (a) Subscriber's use of Information complies with the terms and conditions in the Market Data Policies, and (b) Subscriber shall be responsible for the use of Information by Users and any member of Subscriber's Group, and shall cause the same to comply with the terms of the Subscriber Agreement.

6.2. Distributor's Group agrees to collect and hold Personal Data from Subscribers and prospective Subscribers only as required to satisfy obligations under this Agreement or as directed by CME. All Personal Data must be held as confidential information and in accordance with CME's Market Data Policies. Distributor's Group agrees to provide, correct and/or delete Personal Data within 10 Days of a request from CME to do so.

6.3. Distributor is entirely responsible for ensuring that terms and conditions relating to the use of Information by Subscriber comply with all applicable laws and regulations and the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

6.4. CME reserves the right to enter into a direct Subscriber Agreement with any party for receipt of Information from any member of Distributor's Group. CME shall notify Distributor if CME exercises its rights under this Clause 6.4 with respect to a Subscriber of any member of Distributor's Group.

7. Fees, Reporting, Billing and Payment

7.1. For itself and all other members of Distributor's Group, Distributor shall pay to CME the charges and fees detailed in the Fee Schedule, net of any applicable taxes (e.g. sales, distribution or use taxes). Fees must be calculated in accordance with the Market Data Policies. Distributor shall pay any taxes, fees and similar governmental charges related to the execution or performance of this Agreement, other than taxes on CME's net income.

7.2. CME may change the fees specified in the Fee Schedule (a) at the end of each 12-month period of the Term for Distributors who purchase an Enterprise Distribution license; and

(b) upon a minimum of ninety (90) Days' written notice for Distributors who purchase a User Distribution license.

7.3. Within thirty (30) Days following the end of each calendar month, Distributor shall report to CME on the use and distribution of Real Time Information during such calendar month and its calculations of the related amounts due to CME in accordance with the Market Data Policies. CME shall keep all information provided by Distributor confidential.

7.4. Distributor shall pay all fees, charges and other sums due to CME within thirty (30) Days after the date of invoice issued by CME. CME reserves the right to issue electronic invoices in lieu of paper invoices.

7.5. CME reserves the right to charge interest on overdue payments at the rate of 1.5% per month or the maximum permitted by law, whichever is lower, calculated on a daily basis from the due date of payment.

7.6. If Distributor terminates this Agreement for any reason any pre-paid fees or charges will be retained by CME.

7.7. All payments due to CME shall be made in United States Dollars (or other currency as agreed by CME), to CME's address or to such other address as CME shall specify in writing from time to time.

7.8. Members of Distributor's Group shall be free to establish and alter the prices they charge to Subscribers for the supply of Information and of their Service(s), provided that such prices do not misrepresent fees charged by CME to Distributor in accordance with this Agreement.

8. Maintenance of Records, Audit

8.1. Members of Distributor's Group shall keep complete, accurate and up-to-date records and books of account relating to use and distribution of Information and related Internal Controls.

8.2. CME or its authorized representatives may, on sixty (60) Days' notice, inspect all equipment and records relating to the use, distribution, control and billing of Information, in order to verify the accuracy of reports and compliance by members of Distributor's Group and Subscribers. Audits may be carried out without advance notice if CME has reason to suspect material breach by members of Distributor's Group and/or Subscribers. Visits may take place within normal business hours during the term of this Agreement and for a period of two (2) years afterwards. CME and its authorized representatives shall treat all information obtained in the audit confidentially and use it only for the purpose of verifying compliance with this Agreement.

8.3. Distributor will pay any outstanding fees or charges revealed by an audit within thirty (30) Days of receipt of an invoice from CME.

8.4. In the event that an audit or other investigation by CME reveals a lack of records or failure of Internal Controls, but the amount of under-reported fees and charges cannot be established with reasonable certainty or agreed between the parties, CME may appoint an independent professional auditor to assess the amount owed to CME. CME and Distributor agree to accept the assessment and/or reasonable estimate of the appointed independent professional auditor.

8.5. If an audit reveals an underpayment of more than 5% of the total fees paid by Distributor for the 365-Day period preceding the discovery of the errors, Distributor shall bear the reasonable costs and expenses of the audit, including the cost of any assessment or estimate provided by an independent professional auditor in accordance with Clause 8.4 above.

9. Warranties and Indemnities/Limitation of Liability

9.1. CME represents, warrants and covenants that it has the right to supply Information for the purposes specified in this Agreement.

9.2. Neither CME nor its officers, directors, members, employees, agents, consultants or licensors shall be liable for any delay, inaccuracy, error or omission of any kind in Information or for any resulting loss or damage. In addition, neither CME nor its officers, directors, members, employees, agents, consultants or licensors shall have any liability for losses arising from unauthorized access to Information or any other misuse of Information.

9.3. DISTRIBUTOR ACCEPTS FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE USEFULNESS OF INFORMATION AS INCORPORATED IN THE SERVICE. DISTRIBUTOR EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT NEITHER CME NOR ANY LICENSORS MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES EXCEPT THOSE EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION 9 AND HEREBY DISCLAIM ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION WITH RESPECT TO THE MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, UNINTERRUPTED SERVICE, OR ERROR-FREE SERVICE, OR THE SEQUENCE, TIMELINESS, ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF INFORMATION.

9.4. Distributor warrants that it has the authority to bind and obligate all members of Distributor's Group to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

9.5. Distributor will indemnify CME, its officers, directors, members, employees, agents, consultants and licensors against all losses, claims, damages, expenses or costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) which CME has incurred or paid to any third party arising from (a) access to or use of Information by Distributor or Distributor's Subscribers, except where the losses or claims arise from willful misconduct on the part of CME or its officers; or (b) a breach of any of the representations, warranties, agreements or covenants under this Agreement by any member of Distributor's Group.

CME shall promptly notify Distributor in writing of any such losses, claims, damages, expenses or costs and Distributor shall have sole control of the settlement and defense of any action to which this indemnity relates. CME shall cooperate reasonably with Distributor to facilitate any such defense.

9.6 TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL CME BE LIABLE TO DISTRIBUTOR, ANY MEMBER OF DISTRIBUTOR'S GROUP OR TO OTHERS DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY MAKING USE OF INFORMATION, FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, ARISING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF CME HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY THEREOF AND EVEN IF DUE TO CME'S ERROR, OMISSION, OR NEGLIGENCE.

9.7 TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL CME'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY HEREUNDER FROM ANY AND ALL CAUSES WHATSOEVER

(INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, WARRANTY, INDEMNITY OR OTHERWISE) EXCEED THE FEES PAID TO CME BY DISTRIBUTOR HEREUNDER. THIS LIMITATION SHALL SURVIVE FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY REMEDIES THAT MAY BE PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT.

10. Confidentiality

10.1. Each party acknowledges that information of a confidential nature relating to the business of the other ("Confidential Information") may be disclosed to it under this Agreement. Each party undertakes to hold such information in confidence and not, without the consent of the other, disclose it to any third party nor use it for any purpose other than in the performance of this Agreement.

Confidential Information does not include information that:

- (a) at the time of disclosure is already publicly available,
- (b) is already known to the receiving party prior to disclosure by the disclosing party,
- (c) after disclosure becomes publicly available through no fault of the receiving party,
- (d) is or becomes rightfully known to either party without restriction from another source,
- (e) is developed independently by the receiving party without use of the disclosing party's Confidential Information;
- (f) is required to be disclosed by order of legal or regulatory authorities, provided that the receiving party provides reasonable notice to the disclosing party of such required disclosure and reasonable cooperates with the disclosing party in limiting such disclosure.

11. Term and Termination

11.1. This Agreement takes effect on the Commencement Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with this Agreement.

11.2. This Agreement may be terminated by either party giving the other party at least thirty (30) Days prior written notice. However, if CME exercises its right to terminate pursuant to this Section 11.2, CME shall refund to Distributor a pro rata portion of any prepaid annual fees, based on the number of months remaining in the annual period.

11.3. This Agreement may be terminated immediately or on the date specified in written notice by the party not at fault if any of the following events occur:

(a) If the other party commits any material breach of the terms or conditions of this Agreement and fails to remedy such breach (insofar as such breach is capable of remedy) within thirty (30) Days after receiving written notice of such breach from the party not at fault. Without limiting the foregoing, Distributor shall be deemed to have committed a material breach not capable of cure in the event of: failure to secure adequate Subscriber Agreements, misrepresentation of Information, failure to use effective Internal Controls, failure to pay fees in accordance with this Agreement and failure to prevent or identify and end unauthorized distribution of Information; or

(b) If the other party presents a petition or has a petition presented by a creditor for its winding up, or enters into compulsory or voluntary liquidation (other than for the purpose of a bona-fide reconstruction or amalgamation), or has a receiver of all or any of its undertakings or assets appointed, or ceases to carry on business.

12. Amendments

12.1. Subject to Clauses 12.2 and 12.3, and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, no modification of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless expressly agreed in writing by both parties.

12.2. Distributor may add to and change all details in Schedule 2 except the Commencement Date and may add to or change the list of Affiliated Companies in Schedule 3 to reflect changes in Distributor's Group and its use of Information. However, CME may, in its sole discretion (not to be exercised unreasonably), reject any addition to Affiliated Companies identified in Schedule 3 by providing Distributor notice of such rejection within 10 days of receipt of Distributor's written notice proposing such addition.

12.3. CME may add to or change the Market Data Policies from time to time. CME shall notify Distributor in writing at least thirty (30) Days in advance of any proposed change to Market Data Policies. All changes to Market Data Policies shall apply and be available equally to all Distributors.

13. General

13.1. This Agreement may not be assigned without the prior written consent of the other party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, CME may assign or transfer this Agreement without Distributor's consent to its affiliates or subsidiaries or in the event of a merger, consolidation, corporate reorganization or in the event of a sale of all or substantially all of its assets.

13.2. Neither party shall be liable for any delay or failure to meet its obligations (other than a payment obligation) under the Agreement due to any cause outside its reasonable control and which is neither an intentional act nor an act of gross negligence by either party, for example flood, extraordinary weather conditions, earthquake or other Act of God, fire, war, terrorism, insurrection, riot, labor dispute or act of government.

13.3. If any part, term or provision of this Agreement is held illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected.

13.4. All notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be executed in writing or via such electronic means as are agreed between the parties to constitute written notices and shall be sent to the address appearing on the face of this Agreement or such other address as the receiving party may from time to time designate.

13.5. CME is entitled to rely on the validity of any representation, notice or communication from an officer of Distributor and from the authorized contacts listed by Distributor in Schedule 2 (the "Authorized Contacts"). Distributor agrees to inform CME promptly of any change in the details of Authorized Contacts and to comply with any reasonable procedures or policies introduced by CME for the purpose of validating communications from Authorized Contacts.

13.6. The failure of either party at any time to enforce any provision of the Agreement shall not affect its right thereafter to require complete performance by the other party.

13.7. This Agreement, including all Schedules attached hereto, is the complete and exclusive statement of the Agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior Agreements, oral or written, and all other communications between the parties concerning the subject matter of the Agreement. Each party acknowledges that no reliance is placed on any representation not embodied in the Agreement.

13.8. This Agreement is executed in two separate counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original.

13.9. Headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and do not form a part of the Agreement and do not in any way modify, interpret or construe the intentions of the parties.

13.10. The provisions of Clauses 2.2, 3.2, 4.5, 5.13, 5.14, 7, 8, 9,10, 13 and 14 shall survive termination of the Agreement.

14. Governing Law

14.1. This Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois and the federal laws of the United States, without respect to conflicts of laws principles. Each member of Distributor's group consents, agrees, and hereby submits, to the general and exclusive jurisdiction of the Federal and State courts in Chicago, Illinois, agrees to commence actions, suits, and proceedings only in such courts, and waives any objection to venue in such jurisdiction in the event any action, suit, or proceeding is commenced in such courts with respect to any matters in connection with this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the Commencement Date.

Schedule 4: Market Data Policies

1. Distributor's Group

CME's policy is to encourage Distributors to make Information as widely available as possible, provided that the Distributor establishes effective control over the display and use of Information.

CME will therefore allow the Distributor's Group to include Affiliated Companies and third party Service Facilitators.

Service Facilitators may be agents of the Distributor, owners or operators of web sites displaying the Distributor's Service, software developers, facilities managers, property managers or providers of other support services.

An organization will normally be accepted by CME as a Service Facilitator if:

- The Distributor retains full control, either technically or via an agreement acceptable to CME, over all display of Information within the Distributor's Service as provided via the Service Facilitator
- The Distributor retains full control, either technically or via an agreement acceptable to CME, over the release to Subscribers of Information within the Distributor's Service as provided via the Service Facilitator
- The Distributor unconditionally guarantees and accepts responsibility for performance of all obligations under this Agreement in respect of Information distributed via the Service Facilitator.

Once accepted as a Service Facilitator, an organization's license to use Information within the Distributor's Service is covered by the applicable license fee(s) paid by Distributor. Distributor remains liable for all other fees applicable to Service Facilitators' use of Information within the Distributor's Service.

Service Facilitators have no right to use Information outside the Distributor's Service. An organization may act as a Service Facilitator for multiple Distributors but will be liable for all applicable fees for use of Information in each Distributor's Service. Organizations in this position should consider contracting directly with CME as an Information Distributor.

CME reserves all rights to accept or reject an organization as a Service Facilitator within Distributor's Group. CME may inspect and audit agreements and controls relating to the use of Information by a proposed Service Facilitator. Approved Service Facilitators must be listed and their function or relationship with Distributor described on Schedule 3 of this Agreement. CME reserves all rights to withdraw approval from any organization listed as a Service Facilitator.

2. Media Redistribution

CME recognizes the demand for organizations to broadcast Information to the public without the need for detailed subscriber agreements, reporting and user fees.

CME will allow Distributors to:

- Redistribute Information in specified media publications, and
- License Subscribers to do the same, subject to compliance by Subscriber with CME policy and reporting requirements and payment by Distributor of applicable fees in accordance with this Agreement.

For the purposes of this Agreement, Media Redistribution is normally defined as the display of Information to the public via specified newspaper, TV, radio or similar information services, provided that electronic storage and/or processing of Information by the recipient is prevented, excluded and/or expressly forbidden without prior permission from CME. Media Redistribution may include the occasional inclusion of Information in on-line service content and on-line messaging services. Standard or regular displays of Information in public Internet or on-line news and information services will not normally qualify as Media Redistribution and will normally be subject to regular Web Site Fees or the applicable redistribution License Fees.

Distributor is entirely responsible for compliance with the CME requirements by any Subscriber licensed by any member of Distributor's group for Media Redistribution

CME reserves all rights to determine whether any proposed form of publication qualifies as Media Redistribution, to withhold or withdraw a Media Redistribution license at any time and to apply to Distributor any other fees that may be applicable if a proposed form of Information redistribution is not accepted as Media Redistribution.

Media Redistribution License Fees are payable by the Distributor in respect of:

- Media Redistribution by the Distributor's Group and
- Media Redistribution by Subscribers under license from the Distributor.

3. Subscribers Terms and Conditions

Subscribers accessing Information for Business Use as defined in Market Data Policies may not distribute Information to third parties outside Subscriber's Group, except for:

Delayed Information, subject to the conditions published by CME from time to time and provided also that Distributor reports to CME and pays the applicable Delayed Information Redistribution or Public Internet Display Web Site fee for each Subscriber that redistributes Delayed Information,

Inclusion of Information in Media Publications, subject to the conditions published by CME from time to time and provided also that the Distributor reports to CME and pays the applicable Media Redistribution fee for Subscribers that redistribute Information,

Communication of limited extracts of Information, subject to the conditions published by CME from time to time,

Public Internet Display, subject to Distributor meeting the applicable reporting and payment obligations specified in this Schedule. All persons accessing Information on web-hosted sites will be regarded as Subscribers of Distributor, except that they may not be allowed to redistribute Information to third parties.

CME reserves all rights to determine whether any form of Information redistribution by Subscriber may be allowed.

All uses of Information by Subscriber that are subject to Reporting Requirements as specified in this Schedule must be identified and measured with an approved Unit of Count and be subject to effective Internal Controls which record all authorized use and prevent (or identify and record) any unauthorized use.

Subscribers accessing Information for Business Use as defined by CME may process Information with or without other data for the purpose of creating new original works, provided that:

Any works so created, which display, represent or recreate any item of Information will be regarded as Information for the purposes of this Agreement and will be subject to applicable fees,

Subscriber must obtain prior permission from CME before using any element of Information to create or recalculate indices or any original work that does not include, display or recreate Information.

CME may at its sole discretion deny permission or require Distributor to pay License Fees for each Subscriber granted the right to create or recalculate indices or any other work from Information, for use in services that are not subject to fees in accordance with this Agreement. CME hereby grants permission for the use of Information to create graphs and charts, where the underlying value of elements of Information cannot be identified or calculated (for example to compare percentage change in elements of Information with percentage change in other data).

Subscribers accessing Information for Private Use as defined by CME may use Information only for the purpose of managing their own private investments and not for any business purpose, nor for the purpose of giving any form of advice to any other person. Subscribers may store, download, print and display data from the Service only for their personal use and not for any business purpose.

Subscriber must not misrepresent Information or deface or remove any trademarks transmitted with Information.

Subscriber must not use Information for any illegal purpose.

Subscriber must recognize all Intellectual Property Rights as acknowledged between Distributor and CME.

Subscriber must maintain all records and provide all information required by Distributor to meet Distributor's record-keeping, reporting and payment obligations to CME.

Subscriber must allow CME or any auditors acting on behalf of CME to audit Subscriber's records and use of Information.

Subscriber shall obtain and provide any consents needed for CME or any auditors acting on behalf of CME to review and receive Personal Data, where necessary for the purposes of verifying or ensuring compliance with Distributor's obligations to CME.

In addition to any other remedy, Distributor may immediately suspend or terminate distribution of Information to Subscriber if Distributor has reason to suspect non-compliance with any of these terms or if Distributor is required to do so by CME for any reason.

CME reserves the right at CME's sole discretion, on application by Distributor or in the context of a direct agreement between CME and Subscriber, to extend the definition of "Subscriber's Group" in the case of individual Subscribers to include members of co-operative or professional associations or other corporate structures that function commercially as a single group.

4. Business and Private Use of Information

CME will allow Real Time Information to be made available at lower monthly fees to all Subscribers for Private Use. All use of Information other than Private Use is regarded by CME as Business Use and is subject to the applicable fees per Fee Schedule. .

Private Use is defined as the use of Information by a Subscriber who is a natural person for the purpose of managing the Subscriber's own personal investments and not for any business purpose, nor for the purpose of giving any form of advice to any other person.

Subscribers to Information for Private Use must be restricted by Subscriber Agreement to use Information only for the purposes as defined in this Agreement. They must also agree on request to provide any relevant records required by Distributor, by CME or by their audit representatives in order to verify the nature of the Subscribers' use of Information.

Natural persons who redistribute even limited extracts of Information or use Information for any commercial purpose other than the management of their own personal investments do not qualify as Private Use Subscribers.

CME reserves all rights to apply fees for Business Use where Private Use Subscribers do not comply with the terms of their Subscriber Agreement.

5. Public Internet Display

In November 2003, CME introduced special terms for use of S & P Index Data by Web Sites, Web-hosts and On-line Service Providers (Public Internet Display). With effect from October 1 2005 similar terms are also available for the Public Internet Display of Delayed CME Data. Public Internet Display of Information is subject to the following terms.

Fees for Public Internet Display of Information are calculated per Web Site - defined normally for individual Web Sites as the URL on which Information is displayed, or the home page URL, where Information is displayed on various URL's within the same Web Site service and the home page has a unique Internet domain name.

Many on-line publishers maintain multiple sites within the same domain. In web-host solutions individual customer sites may link or frame URL's from the web-host provider's domain. In some cases multiple domains may be used for different language versions of the same web-site service.

CME's policy in these cases for reporting and Web Site fees is as follows:

A Web Site is generally defined as a group of URL's with a single commercial brand or identity. CME reserves all rights to determine whether any group of URL's should be regarded as a separate Web Site for reporting and fees purposes, taking into account the guidelines set out in this policy statement.

Separately branded online publications normally count as multiple Web Sites, even if they are owned by the same corporation and contain similar displays of Information.

Individual customer domains that contain links to generic or co-branded displays of Information normally each count as separate Subscriber Web Sites, whether or not the generic or co-branded displays are framed within the customer's domain or sub-domain or carry URL's or attribution notices associated with the Distributor.

Individual customer domains that (i) contain links to displays of Information that are clearly branded as part of the Distributor's site, and (ii) do not otherwise qualify as Subscriber Web Sites, will not be regarded as Subscriber Web Sites.

Quote search facilities will normally be regarded as links unless the quote search graphic displays Information. Links to third-party-branded URL's are not subject to Web Site fees or reporting requirements by the Web Site displaying the link (the applicable fees are paid by the third-party). Links to generic or co-branded URL's will render the customer domain subject to Web Site fees and reporting requirements.

Where different domain names open or are automatically diverted to the same site each domain home page URL should be reported but only one Web Site fee will normally apply.

Where multiple domains contain different language versions of the same online content each domain home page URL should be reported but only one Web Site fee will normally apply.

CME reserves all rights to determine whether one or more Web Site fee should apply in the event that Information is displayed on multiple URL's or accessed via multiple domains linked to the same URL.

Public Internet Display fees may apply both to Web Sites displaying Information without restriction and to Web Sites displaying Information to registered users only. Public Internet Display fees are not applicable where a Web Site offers fee-liable Information to Subscribers via downloadable terminal software or similar means. In these cases License fees and User fees may apply.

Fees for Public Internet Display are specified in the Fees Schedule. They are equally available to all Distributors. They will apply only to Distributors that meet the following implementation criteria:

- a) Settlement with CME and release of further liability of Distributor in respect of any unauthorized distribution of Information prior to the effective date of the Public Internet Display fees,
- b) Full report to CME's satisfaction of all Distributor's Group and Subscriber Web Sites and Authorized Users with access to Information, within 30 days of the effective date of the Public Internet Display fees.
- c) Full Report to CME's satisfaction of all organizations receiving Information in Distributor's Services and acting as Subvendors, whether or not they are authorized by CME to do so.
- d) Removal of fee-liable Information within 30 days of the effective date from all Subscribers that are not covered by fees paid by Distributor or by direct agreements between the Subscriber and CME.

Distribution and use of Information under the new fees options are subject to the written permission of CME. Permission may be withdrawn on thirty days notice in the event of non-compliance by the Distributor with the terms of this Agreement. All other authorized or unauthorized use of Information in Distributor's Services is subject to the standard fees and reporting requirements specified in this Agreement.

In addition to the new fees options CME reserves the right, on application from Distributor or in the context of a direct agreement between CME and Subscriber, to specify separate terms for the Public Internet Display of Information by individual Distributor and Subscriber Groups in developing markets. CME may at its sole discretion apply the “developing markets” concept to geographical markets or commercial market sectors. The minimum annual subscription per Distributor or Subscriber Group for “developing markets” arrangements is US $10,000 for S & P Index Data only and $20,000 for other Information.

6. Personal Data

CME reserves rights to collect personal data from users who access and use Information, or are authorized to access and use Information, or apply to access and use Information (Personal Data).

CME’s policy with regard to the collection and use of Personal Data is as follows:

The purpose of collecting Personal Data is to authenticate and verify authorized use of Information and to enable CME and its Distributors to meet their obligations to each other regarding the supply of Information.

CME does not disseminate Personal Data to brokers or to other third parties for direct marketing activities. Personal Data may be used for statistical purposes and statistics provided to third parties, but not in such a way that the user’s Personal Data is disclosed. CME and its Distributors may provide Personal Data to regulatory authorities and other third parties as required by applicable law or regulation. If a user supplies Personal Data from outside of the United States, the Personal Data may be transferred to the CME in Chicago Illinois, USA and to its regulators. Personal Data may be retained by CME for as long as the user is authorized to access the Data, for as long as is required for CME and its Distributors to meet their obligations to each other regarding the supply of Information, or for such time as is required by applicable regulatory authorities.

Users have the right to request access to and correct Personal Data held by CME or its Distributors. CME will make reasonable efforts to correct errors in Personal Data within 40 Days of receipt of correction notice. To obtain access to Personal Data held by CME or CME Distributors, users should send an email to marketdata@cme.com.

7. Unit of Count

All uses of Information by Distributor that are subject to Reporting Requirements as specified in this Schedule must be identified, recorded and controlled by one of the following Units of Count:

Device receiving Information – defined as any unit of equipment, fixed or portable, that receives, accesses or displays Information supplied directly or indirectly via the Service in visible, audible or other comprehensible form. CME reserves the sole right to determine whether any item of equipment constitutes a Device.

Authorized User – defined as an individual personal user uniquely identified (by user ID and confidential password or other unambiguous method acceptable to CME) and authorized to access Information supplied directly or indirectly via the Service. CME reserves the sole right to determine whether any mechanism or system for identifying Authorized Users is subject to effective Internal Controls.

Request – defined as any items of Information relating to a single instrument requested as at any one time. CME reserves the sole right to determine whether items of Information constitute a single Request. (For Public Internet Display) Web Site –as defined in Section 5 of Market Data Policies.

Units of Count apply to User Fees as follows:

- Device, where access to Information is controlled by Device
- Authorized User, where access to Information is controlled per Authorized User
- Individual Request, where this method is used to control access to Information.

Where receipt and use of Information is controlled per Authorized User, Distributor and Subscriber must keep all User ID’s and passwords confidential and prohibit sharing of user ID’s.

8. Basis of Count and Calculation of Fees

User Fees and Web Site Fees obligations are calculated on the basis of the number of applicable Units of Count with access to Information at any time during the relevant month. Fees apply to any unauthorized use or redistribution of Information by Distributor or Subscribers. A full month's fee is due for each month in which the unit accesses Information.

CME is prepared to accommodate other practices where they approximate to the amounts owed to CME under this Agreement.

In particular, CME will provisionally accept reports based on snapshot counts and partial month calculations, without prejudice to the amounts owed in accordance with CME policy as stated above. CME reserves the right to recover the full amount owed in accordance with this Agreement, in the event that audit reveals any significant differences between fees calculated by Distributor and fees calculated in accordance with CME policy.

9. Fee Waivers

User Fees may be waived by CME in respect of internal use of the Information by the Distributor's Group for quality control and monitoring purposes or product development or demonstration.

CME reserves the right to limit the number of Units for which such fees are waived and to change the limit on three (3) months notice to the Distributor.

10. Direct Agreement between CME and Subscribers

CME policy is to encourage the formation and growth of Distributor Groups to minimize the cost and administrative burden of providing Information in Services to Subscribers. CME will normally contract with Distributors for the Distribution of Information to Subscribers.

CME reserves the right at CME's sole discretion to contract directly with Subscribers for Business Use and Private Use of Information. Where CME contracts directly with Subscribers, CME's Subscriber Agreements will meet the relevant requirements of this Agreement.

Where Distributor contracts with Subscriber, and for all use of Information within Distributor's Group subject to User Fees and Web Site Fees, the applicable fees will be billed by CME to Distributor. One fee is payable per Distributor per Unit of Count.

If CME contracts directly with Subscriber, CME User Fees and Web Site Fees apply per Subscriber and will be billed by CME direct to Subscriber. One fee will be payable per Subscriber per Unit of Count.

11. Reporting Requirements

CME policy is to minimize the requirement for detailed monthly reports from Distributors and to promote the development of controls-based verification of reports and payments.

Distributors will be required to report, either monthly or as otherwise agreed with CME:

The name and address of each Subvendor receiving Information from Distributor.

The amount payable by Distributor relating to any Media Redistribution License or Intellectual Property Creation License granted to the Distributor.

The name and address of each Subscriber granted any form of redistribution or Intellectual Property creation rights subject to License Fees and the total amount of each type of License Fee due in respect of Subscribers.

The number and location of units within Distributor's Group subject to User Fees and/or Web Site Fees in accordance with each item of the Fee Schedule, and the amount of the related fees.

The total number of units at Subscriber locations for which Distributor is liable to pay User Fees and/or Web Site Fees and the total amount of the related fees in respect of each item of the Fee Schedule. The numbers and amount reported should exclude any Units reported directly to CME by Subscribers.

Other details (including name and address of Subscriber and unit totals per Subscriber or per country) as CME may reasonably request from time to time.

Distributor's reports shall at CME's request identify fees relating to use and distribution of Information by each Service Facilitator.

Distributor's reports shall be submitted in electronic form in a format agreed with CME, and attached to Schedule 2. Any changes to the format of the report shall be agreed in advance with CME.

No reports are required in respect of the recipients of Information via Media Redistribution or the communication of limited extracts of Information in occasional correspondence that does not, in CME's determination at CME's sole discretion, amount to any fee-liable use of Information specified in this Schedule.

Monthly reporting requirements in respect of Public Internet Display will normally be waived where Distributors choose to pay monthly fees per Distributor Group. CME reserves the right to request details of distribution (in particular details of Subscriber Web Sites covered by the fees) from time to time, where reasonably required, for example to avoid unnecessary disturbance of Subscribers.

Distributor reports may only contain credits for Device/User ID cancellations within the 3-month period prior to the beginning of the current reporting period. Claims in any reporting period exceeding 20% of the average monthly reported fees for the preceding 6 months will be subject to audit.
